

IGNITION

AUTHORITY

SESSION 2: RESPECT

Write down an authority figure you have in your life you have trouble respecting.

Circle the reasons you don't respect the person, or write your own reason.

Makes unfair rules

Tells you what to do in a rude manner

Is not competent in what he or she does

Does not like teenagers

Has unrealistic expectations of you

Does not share the same values as you do

Is easily angered

Does not respect you

Is against your beliefs

Other: _____

Review David's questions to Saul in 1 Samuel 26:18. Meditate on this verse, and ask God to help you understand the questions David asked Saul in order to encourage him to do right. In the same spirit of respect and encouragement, write down questions you have for the authority figure in your life you have trouble respecting. Ask these questions to the person.

Respecting your enemies in one of the hardest thing to do. Read here to learn more:

<http://tinyurl.com/pf8qxd>

Aretha Franklin's classic song "Respect" was written by Otis Redding. Read the lyrics by going here:

<http://www.lyrics007.com/Aretha%20Franklin%20Lyrics/Respect%20Lyrics.html>

Needed: a wholesome respect for authority. Go here to read more:

<http://www.christianindex.org/3738.article>